Partners Advantage Hosts Top Life, Health and Annuity Agencies in Las Vegas

Colton, CA (June 16, 2010) – The dazzling new Aria Resort & Casino in Las Vegas will be the site where 60 top-performing life, health and annuity agencies will gather on July 20-21, 2010. This meeting provided exclusively by Partners Advantage Insurance Services, LLC brings together agencies that work with them at the coveted Platinum Partner level. Through Partners Advantage, the Platinum Partner agencies gain access to added products, marketing tools, training, technology and a variety of other benefits which allow them to gain more business.

At this special invitation meeting, the agencies will discuss cutting-edge marketing and recruiting topics and learn about an array of services and unique sales ideas that can translate into more business. The event will also feature some of the industry's top-rated insurance carriers.

Baseball legend Steve Garvey will be a special guest at the event.

“There are very few companies that can offer this level of products, services and resources to marketing organizations,” said James Wong, Senior Vice President of Partner Distribution at Partners Advantage. “Partnering with us allows marketing organizations to greatly expand what they are able to offer to their agents and gain more business for their agency.”
